3. 300th Ration Supply Depot

Location: SATEKORN, near the railroad station

Installations: Six brick buildings (each 260x65x35 feet) for storage of canned food-stuffs. Three seven-story silos for storage of peeled grain and flour. One cold storage house for fresh meat.

Incoming shipments: Fresh meat from the BERLIN central cold storages (once a week). Two or three freight trains of 40 to 50 cars each with ration supplies from MAGDEBURG (N 53/Y 60) (once a month). Two or three freight trains with ration supplies from BRESDEN (N 52/F 29) (once a month). Shipment of peeled grain, buckwheat, groats, etc. from the Soviet Union.

Issuance: 10,000 rations per day to units in KRAMPITZ (N 53/Z 64), primarily tank units and two NCO schools, the latter receiving rations exceeding the normal quantity. Very large ration supplies to Soviet Air Force units in the NAULN (N 53/Z 45) area.

Quarters: The personnel of the ration supply depot, including civilian personnel, were quartered in three-story houses (each 350x65 feet) in the depot area, together with the personnel of the 59th Army Field Bakery and the guard personnel.

4. Other data:

a. The 320th Ration Supply Depot, comprising six large buildings allegedly belonging to a former German Armed Forces ration supply depot, was located near the FRANKFURT/Oder freight station.

b. [redacted] a shipment of 750 tons of sugar (in 50 boxcars) from ROSITZ (N 52/K 27) to MOSCOW in April 1949. The shipment was bound for the first Ration Supply Depot of the Ministry of National Defense NKD which was located in a 2,500-acre area near the Rzhev Railroad Station. Ten to twelve freight trains of 40 to 60 cars each were daily arriving in the depot from all parts of the Soviet Union and the Soviet Zone of Germany. Sugar, cocoa, chocolate, and sweets, etc. also arrived from Germany; raisins, peaches and all kinds of dried fruit from TASHKENT.
